A person who owns harbors, or keeps a dog or cat that runs at large shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Please come into City Hall and view the entire ordinance to make sure you are complying. Ordinances are established to ensure the enjoyment of each resident's property and to maintain a quality of life for our community. Please be a considerate community member. In the event of an animal running at large please call Carver County Community Service Officer 952-361-1212 is the non emergency number.

Spring Recycle

Date is May 20th, 2017 from 7 AM—11 AM. The fees will be listed in the next newsletter.

The City of New Germany will be discontinuing the Fall Recycle; due to low participation. Bring your items to the spring date on May 20th, prices will be significantly increasing in fall of 2017. NYA will still be having the fall recycling on September 9, 2017, you can always take your items directly to that site and keep in mind the prices will be increasing on this recycling date.

Brush goes to the Mayer site NOT to City Shed.
There will be a compost only dumpster at the City Shed when the weather permits.
